ORDER:

The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Telangana, Hyderabad in his letters read above, has reported that Sri P. Ram Reddy, Probationary Deputy Tahsildar, Mahabubnagar District, was selected through A.P. Public Service Commission, vide Notification No.10/2004 and allotted to Medak District as Probationary Deputy Tahsildar and reported to duty on 15.10.2007 as Probationary Deputy Tahsildar (under training) in Medak District. Further stated that, his name was included and deferred in the Annual Panel of Tahsildars for the year 2010-2011, due to non passing of the Departmental Tests within the prescribed period. Hence, he has requested the Government to relax the Rule 16(h) of A.P. State & Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 in favour of Sri P. Ram Reddy, Pro. Dy. Tahsildar for Regularization of services and declaration of his probation and also to consider his name in the annual panel of Tahsildars for the year 2010-11.

2. Every employee recruited in to a service has to pass the departmental tests within a period of 3 years including extension period of one year from the date of joining as laid down in Rule 17 (b) read with Rule 16 of the A.P. State & Subordinate Service Rules, 1996. As per Rule 6 and 7 of the A.P. Departmental Test Rules, 1965, the A.P.Public Service Commission has to conduct the departmental tests twice in a year and notification of the said exams has to be issued in the month of January and July and examination has to be conducted in May and November in a year. As per the said rules, the results should be published on or before last Thursday of July for the examination conducted during the month of May and on or before last Thursday of January of the succeeding year for the examination conducted during the November of the previous year.

3. After careful examination of the matter, it has been observed that Sri P. Ram Reddy has appeared his last departmental test (i.e. Civil Judicial Test) which is scheduled to be held in November, 2009 session. But, the A.P. Public Service Commission has actually conducted the examination on 10-05-2010 to 12.05.2010 and published results on 03-11-2010. Had the departmental test been conducted on time in May, 2010 and the results published on time in July, 2010, the individual would have passed the departmental tests within 3 years (by July 2010) from the date of his joining and would become eligible for inclusion of his name in the panel of Tahsildars for the year 2010-11 (as the panel year starts from 1st of the September, 2010) and further his name would not be deferred from the panel.

4. In the above circumstances, it is considered that the delay in passing the departmental tests is not due to the fault of the individual, but due to delay in conducting of departmental tests by the A.P.Public Service Commission (Schedule to be held in the month of November 2009 and the exam was conducted on 10.05.2010, the result was published on 03.11.2010. Since the delay in passing of departmental tests cannot be attributed to the individual, it is decided to relax the Rule 16 (h) of A.P.State and Subordinate Service Rules 1996 in favour of Sri P. Ram Reddy, Probationary Deputy Tahsildar of Mahabubnagar District.

5. Accordingly, in terms of rule 31 of A.P.State & Subordinate Service Rules, 1996, Government hereby order to relax the Rule 16 (h) of A.P.State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 in favour of Sri P. Ram Reddy, Probationary Deputy Tahsildar, Medak District (of 2007 PDT batch ) (now working as Tahsildar in Mahabubnagar District) and declare that, he shall be deemed to have completed his probation within the normal period of probation in the cadre of Deputy Tahsildar and also the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Telangana, Hyderabad is permitted to include the name of the individual in the panel of Tahsildars for the year 2010-11, as the delay in conducting the examination and announcement of results was caused by the A.P.Public Service Commission.

6. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Telangana, Hyderabad shall take further necessary action in the matter, accordingly.
